EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 6, last two lines, "attached to second ends of" has been changed to --- attached to ends of---.

Claim 19, line 4, "form" has been changed to ---from---.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art does not teach or fairly suggest a magnetron comprising, in combination with the remaining features of the claim, a pair of terminal rods having an attachment portion which is attached to each connection plate respectively, and slender protrusions which have sectional areas smaller than sectional areas of the attachment portions of the terminal rods so that the pair of terminal rods are attached to the pair of connection plates with the slender protrusions passing through the connection plates (claim 1); a pair of terminal rods having slender protrusions and connected to the external power terminals at first ends of the terminal rods, respectively and positioned to pass through an isolation block to allow the first and second leads to be connected to each of the terminal rods, and a pair of connection plates attached to ends of the first and second leads, respectively (claim 6).
